Brazilian Fever

An exciting incursion which mixes arts, dance, acrobatics, music, song and culture into an engrossing, high energy combat-dance.

Developed by African slaves over 400 years ago as a form of self-defense. The emphasis is on not how well you perform but on how much energy you commit. As one of our most popular incursions it is always a crowd pleaser with all ages.

South Pacific
PACIFIC DANCE INFUSION

The eerie yet tranquil sound of the conch shell echoes, then the soft beating of log drum fills the air.

A lone warrior bursts forward, fiercely chanting in his native tongue and waving his spear. He is ferocious. He is triumphant! ` He has captured his audience'. The journey begins...
